CERTIFICATION OF MARC E. FEASTER
IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO DISMISS COMPLAINT
AND FOR ALTERNATIVE RELIEF

Michael D. Schottland, Esq.,
Admitted pro haec vice,
Of Counsel

Peter V. Koenig, Esq.,
On the Brief

I, Marc E. Feaster, of full age, hereby certify and say:

1. I am the President and Chief Executive Officer of ViaSource Funding Group, L.L.C. ("ViaSource"), the plaintiff in this action. I have personal knowledge of the facts and circumstances set forth herein, and am a custodian of the corporate documents attached hereto. I make this Certification in support of the Motion on behalf of ViaSource to dismiss the Complaint of plaintiffs, Greenwich Life Settlements, Inc. and Greenwich Settlements Master Trust ("Greenwich") and for alternative relief.

No Contact with Greenwich and No Notice of an "Assignment"

2. At the outset, I aver absolutely and unequivocally that ViaSource never had any communications or contact whatsoever with the plaintiffs or anyone acting on their behalf regarding the matters in controversy in this action. I have reviewed all of ViaSource's records and spoken with ViaSource's officers and employees, which inquiries confirm this fact.

3. Likewise, I aver absolutely and unequivocally that neither Legacy Benefits Corporation nor anyone else ever notified ViaSource that the plaintiffs (or any parties other than Legacy Benefits) had or claimed to have any right, title, interest, assignment or involvement whatsoever in the proposed transaction between ViaSource and Legacy Benefits. I have reviewed all of ViaSource's records and spoken with ViaSource's officers and employees, which inquiries confirm this fact.

4. At all times until being served with the plaintiff's Complaint, ViaSource was told and believed that the sole party in interest in the proposed transaction, the subsequent lawsuits, and the dismissal of Legacy Benefits' claims was Legacy Benefits itself. I have reviewed all of ViaSource's records and spoken with ViaSource's officers and employees, which inquiries confirm this fact.

5. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, ViaSource had no notice whatsoever of any "assignment" or other arrangement between Legacy Benefits and Greenwich (or any other party or parties) regarding the Policy or the proposed transaction until ViaSource received the Complaint in the present action.

No Contract

6. I also aver, at the outset, that there is no contract between ViaSource and Legacy Benefits, and no such contract ever came into existence. Legacy Benefits never signed the required documents. Legacy Benefits never funded the transaction. Legacy Benefits altered the proposed documents after ViaSource had signed the proposal. Legacy Benefits never provided a signed contract to ViaSource. In addition, any and all claims that such a contract ever existed were extinguished and dismissed months ago.

Background

7. ViaSource is a "viatical settlements" company. Basically, ViaSource acquires the right to receive the proceeds of life insurance policies, from individuals who have been told that their life expectancy has been curtailed. The insureds receive cash payouts during their lifetimes. This is called a viatical settlement. When the individuals pass away, ViaSource receives the death benefit. At times, ViaSource also re-sells policies to other firms, such as Legacy Benefits. This is a simplified explanation of the process.

8. Viatical settlements are highly time-sensitive. The value of a policy depends heavily upon the health and life expectancy of the insured. The longer the policy is held, the more it is worth, as the insured's life draws closer to its close. The value also depends upon the length of time the policy is held by the viatical settlements company. The longer the policy is held, the more premiums the viatical settlements company must pay to keep the policy in force. When ViaSource buys or sells a policy, the transaction must be closed quickly. Otherwise, the policy's face value, the premiums, the insured's life expectancy and other key financial conditions will change. In our business, time is money.

9. Viatical settlements are capital-intensive. ViaSource needs to borrow or raise capital to buy policies, with the prospect of a return later when the insureds pass away and the policies become payable. In particular, GE Capital loans money to ViaSource for the purchase of policies. GE Capital's credit is secured by the policy proceeds. GE Capital retained the right to approve or disapprove any sale of a policy in which it has a security interest. The longer a policy is owned by ViaSource, the more interest it must pay to GE Capital. If ViaSource sells a policy, the sale must close promptly. Again, time is critical.

The Documents Actually Signed by ViaSource

10 In the course of its business, ViaSource acquired a multi-million dollar policy insuring the life of Ms. Melanie Weller (the "Weller Policy"). The Weller Policy was subject to GE Capital's security interest.

11. In April of 2007, ViaSource placed the Weller Policy out to market, to see if it could be re-sold for an acceptable price.

12. In May of 2007, Legacy Benefits proposed to purchase the Weller Policy for $4,000,000. At that time, the Weller Policy had a face amount of $5,287,265.

13. In anticipation of a potential sale to Legacy Benefits, ViaSource executed an Assignment to Transfer Ownership for Life Insurance Policies (Exhibit A) and a Beneficiary Designation for Life Insurance Policies (Exhibit B), on May 16, 2007. The date and content of Exhibits A and B are critically important. As I will show below, Legacy Benefits fraudulently altered these documents after they were signed by ViaSource.

14. On or about June 7, 2007, the proposed price was changed. The new proposal was for a purchase price of $3,951,662 as against a face value of $5,223,371. These figures changed because the face amount of the Weller Policy was reduced by the monthly premium. The price change shows the impact of time on the transaction, and the critical need to complete the proposed transaction promptly.

15. On June 11, 2007, ViaSource signed various documents for the potential sale. These documents included forms prepared by Legacy Benefits: the Disclosure Statement (Exhibit C), Beneficiary's Absolute Assignment and Waiver of Claim (Exhibit D), Escrow Agreement (Exhibit E), and Purchase Agreement (Exhibit F).

16. These Exhibits are also critically important. ViaSource signed all of these documents on June 11, 2007 -- as confirmed by the notarizations on Exhibits D and F. As explained below, Legacy Benefits later fraudulently altered the dates on documents after they were signed.

17. The documents attached as Exhibits C through F are the only versions ViaSource ever had. ViaSource never received signed copies of these documents from Legacy Benefits. This includes documents to be signed by Legacy Benefits and by Wells Fargo as the escrow agent for the proposed transaction. Legacy Benefits apparently "signed" some of these documents in July of 2007, after altering the dates of ViaSource's signatures. This was also fraudulent.

18. On June 18, 2007, the Assignment to Transfer Ownership for Life Insurance Policies (Exhibit A) and a Beneficiary Designation for Life Insurance Policies (Exhibit B) were signed by Mr. John Garvey, on behalf of GE Capital. GE Capital's approval was required, as I explained above. Legacy Benefits was well aware of GE Capital's interest and the requirement for its approval. The date of Mr. Garvey's signature on Exhibits A and B is critically important. Legacy Benefits later fraudulently changed the date of Mr. Garvey's signature on the Assignment to Transfer Ownership for Life Insurance Policies (Exhibit A), in addition to its other fraudulent alterations of documents. ViaSource sent the proposed documents to Legacy Benefits by Federal Express on June 19, 2007: Legacy Benefits received them on June 20, 2007.

Legacy Benefits Fails to Execute the Documents and Fails to Fund the Proposed Sale

19. On June 20, 2007, Legacy Benefits received Exhibits A through F. ViaSource assumed that Legacy Benefits would (1) sign the Purchase Agreement (Exhibit F) and return it to ViaSource, and (2) place the purchase price in escrow, and (3) promptly complete the transaction. In fact, Legacy Benefits did none of these things.

20. The date of June 20, 2007 is important, because the Purchase Agreement would have required Legacy Benefits to place the purchase price in escrow within three days after receiving the change of ownership forms. Since June 23rd was a Saturday, the third day would have been June 26th. In Fact, Legacy Benefits never placed the purchase price in escrow.

21. On June 27, 2007, I received a short list of questions from Legacy Benefits, to which I responded. Exhibit G.

22. Legacy Benefits failed to move forward. Legacy Benefits did not return the signed agreement, apparently did not place the purchase price in escrow, and did not implement the transfer of the Weller Policy from ViaSource to Legacy Benefits.

23. On July 11, 2007, I sent an e-mail to Legacy Benefits to move forward with the proposed transaction. Exhibit H. At my direction, Sonia Ayers of ViaSource again urged Legacy Benefits to implement the proposed transaction. Exhibit I (July 16, 2007); Exhibit J (July 18, 2007).

24. Legacy Benefits still did not return a signed Purchase Agreement. Instead, on July 18, 2007, Legacy Benefits stated that it was sending the change of beneficiary forms (see Exhibits A and B) to the insurance carrier that day. Exhibit K. Again, the date is important. In fact, Legacy Benefits did not consummate the change of ownership for the Weller Policy on July 18, 2007, or ever.

25. As late as July 25, 2007, Legacy Benefits was still demanding changes and more information about the proposed transaction. Exhibit L.

27. Of major significance, as late as July 27, 2007, Legacy Benefits acknowledged that the necessary contract documents had not yet been signed. Exhibit M is a copy of an e-mail dated July 25, 2007, from Mr. Nelson Barrera of Legacy Funding, stating that ViaSource had to sign an "offer acceptance" for the proposed transaction.

28. This is important for two reasons. First, Legacy Benefits had never returned its signed Purchase Agreement (Exhibit F) to ViaSource. As of July 27, 2007, Legacy Benefits wanted ViaSource to sign another document to express the proposed contract.

29. Second, Legacy Benefits recognized that as of July 27, 2007, there was no contract between ViaSource and Legacy Benefits. Legacy Benefits requested that ViaSource sign a new document -- and had never returned a signed Purchase Agreement to ViaSource. See Exhibit F.

30. I knew by that time that Legacy Benefits had not in fact sent the change of beneficiary forms to the insurance carrier. See ¶ 24 and Exhibit K. On July 18, 2007, Legacy Benefits had stated that it was forwarding the change documents to the carrier that day. As of July 27, Legacy Benefits still had not done so. Legacy Benefit's statement was obviously false.

31. I also knew that Legacy Benefits could not possibly implement the proposed transaction by July 31, 2007. Legacy Benefits did not, in fact, send the change forms to the carrier on July 18th, and had not done so as of July 27th. Accordingly, I instructed my staff to contact the carrier, and direct them not to accept any change of ownership until further notice from ViaSource as the owner of the Weller Policy.

32. On August 1, 2007, Legacy Benefits again requested that ViaSource execute the proposed "Offer Acceptance." Exhibit M. My assistant Sonia Ayers responded, correctly, that the transaction had to be closed by the end of July. Since Legacy Benefits did not do so, and could not have done so, and never returned the signed documents to ViaSource, and never funded the escrow, the proposed transaction was moot and no longer operative.

33. By August 9, 2007 at the latest, Legacy Benefits was well aware that the proposed transaction with ViaSource was over. Exhibit M. Legacy Benefits contacted ViaSource, stating that the insurance carrier had declined the change of ownership forms. Again, as of that date, Legacy Benefits had never returned a signed Purchase Agreement, had never returned a signed escrow agreement, and had never placed the purchase funds in escrow. As of that date, ViaSource had not signed the "Offer Acceptance" document that Legacy Benefits required on July 27th.

Legacy Benefits Claims That a Contract Exists

34. On August 28, 2007, Legacy Benefits wrote a "demand letter" claiming that the transaction was in effect. Exhibit N. The date of that letter is significant, in light of Legacy Benefit's fraud that came to light later. As shown by the "demand letter" -- and every other document before and after -- Legacy Benefits always presented itself as the sole party in interest; Legacy Benefits never mentioned an "assignment" or Greenwich or any third party.

35. On September 10, 2007, I received a further "demand letter" from a law firm in Georgia representing Legacy Benefits. Exhibit O. The Georgia attorney also invoked the Purchase Agreement (Exhibit F) -- which, as far as ViaSource knew, Legacy Benefits had never signed. Again, Legacy Benefits had never provided a signed copy of the Purchase Agreement to ViaSource, and had instead asked ViaSource to sign a proposed "Offer Acceptance" which ViaSource never signed. Again, Legacy Benefits represented that it was the sole party in interest, and never mentioned an "assignment" or Greenwich or any third party.

ViaSource Files An Action in New Jersey to Declare There is No Contract

36. On September 13, 2007, ViaSource filed an action in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division, Monmouth County, its county of residence, for the primary purpose of declaring that there was no contract between ViaSource and Legacy Benefits for the sale of the Weller Policy. Exhibit P. As the Court can see, there are two Counts. Count One is to declare that there is no contract between the parties. This was ViaSource's position as of July 27, 2007, and this remains ViaSource's position today.

37. Count Two of the Complaint is clearly prefaced by Count One. Count Two does not, and is not intended to, concede that there is any contract between the parties. The only place that the word "contract" appears in Count Two is in the following phrase:

2. While not conceding that any contract came into existence . . .

Count Two explicitly refers to the matter between ViaSource and Legacy Benefits as an "attempted assignment and purchase." Nothing whatsoever in Count Two affirms or relies upon an actual contract between the parties.

Legacy Benefits Relies Upon Fraudulent Documents and False Averments of Fact

38. It appears that on September 21, 2007 -- about two weeks after ViaSource's Complaint was filed -- Legacy Benefits filed a competing and duplicitous action in New York State. Exhibit Q is a copy of the purported "Summons and Complaint" that were supposedly "served" on ViaSource on October 9, 2007. Of major significance, Legacy Benefits averred, under oath, that it was the sole owner, claimant and party in interest regarding its claims to the Policy and the alleged transaction with ViaSource.

39. Legacy Benefits' New York Complaint, and its position before the New Jersey Court, were based upon Legacy Benefits' version of three documents: the Purchase Agreement, the Assignment to Transfer Ownership for Life Insurance Policies, and the Beneficiary Designation for Life Insurance Policies. Copies of these three documents, as relied upon by Legacy Benefits, were attached to the New York Complaint, and were also filed by Legacy Benefits in this Court.

40. I aver, of my own personal knowledge, that the versions of these documents as filed on behalf of Legacy Benefits are fraudulent. Legacy Benefits (or other persons unknown) altered these documents after they were signed by ViaSource and by Mr. Garvey for GE Capital. Neither ViaSource nor GE Capital ever signed these documents in the form offered by Legacy Benefits. Legacy Benefits never sent ViaSource or GE Capital these documents in the form offered by Legacy Benefits.

41. Exhibit R is a side-by-side comparison of the real Assignment to Transfer Ownership for Life Insurance Policies form signed by myself, Mr. Daly and Mr. Garvey (Exhibit A to this Certification) with the fraudulent document offered by Legacy Benefits. The Legacy Benefits version displays fraudulent alterations and additions, which were made after I and Messrs. Daly and Garvey signed it:

A. The New Policy Owner's Name at the upper left is blank on the real form. Legacy Benefits fraudulently altered the form by filling in its name and address as the new policy owner.

B. The details as to the New Owner, including name, Tax Identification number, address, contingent owner, etc., are blank on the real form. Legacy Benefits fraudulently added this information.

C. As averred above, I and Mr. Daly signed the real form on May 16, 2007. Legacy Benefits fraudulently altered the Date Signed to be July 17, 2007 -- over two months later. The fraud is particularly obvious if you compare the "crossed 7" used by the forger with the "uncrossed 7" in the real document.

D. The date of Mr. Garvey's signature was fraudulently altered. He signed the real form on June 18, 2007. Legacy Benefits deleted the real date, and forged a date of July 18, 2007 -- a month later. Again, the fraud is obvious because the forger used "crossed 7s" in the fraudulent date.

E. The fraudulent alteration is confirmed by the fact that the real document was received by Legacy Benefits on June 20, 2007. See ¶18 above. ViaSource and GE Capital did not have this document in their possession after June 19th -- Legacy Benefits had it.

42. Exhibit S is a side-by-side comparison of the real Beneficiary Designation for Life Insurance Policies (Exhibit B) with the fraudulent document offered by Legacy Benefits. The fraudulent alterations include the following:

A. The Owner's Name block at the upper left is blank on the real form. Legacy Benefits fraudulently inserted ViaSource Funding Group, LLC as the "owner." I add that the forger wasn't too subtle. If the proposed transaction had been completed, then Legacy Benefits would have become the new owner and its name would have been filled in -- not ViaSource.

B. The new beneficiary's name, address and relationship are blank on the real form. Legacy Benefits fraudulently inserted its name, address and purported "relationship" to ViaSource.

C. Again, Mr. Daly and I signed the real form on May 16, 2007. Again, Legacy Benefits fraudulently altered the date to be July 17, 2007, including the forger's "crossed 7s."

D. Of interest, the Legacy Benefits forger forgot to change the date of Mr. Garvey's signature on the fraudulent Beneficiary Designation. This renders the forgeries even more overt.

E. Again, Legacy Benefits received the real document on June 20th. ViaSource and GE Capital did not have this document on July 17th -- Legacy Benefits had it.

43. Exhibit T is a side-by-side comparison of the signature pages of the real Purchase Agreement signed by ViaSource (but not by Legacy Benefits) with the purported version offered by Legacy Benefits. The most obvious difference is that the real and only version of this document ever possessed or received by ViaSource does not have Legacy Benefits' signature. Again, I aver that Legacy Benefits never gave ViaSource a signed Purchase Agreement.

44. The date chosen by the forger -- July 25, 2007 -- is significant. I do not know when Legacy Benefits' signature and date were inserted into the Purchase Agreement, because Legacy Benefits never delivered a signed Agreement to ViaSource. However, I note that the proposed Purchase Agreement allowed ViaSource to cancel the transaction within 30 days after the Agreement was signed. If the Agreement were signed on July 25, 2007, the 30 day period would have expired at the close of business on Friday, August 24, 2007. Legacy Benefits' "demand letter" to ViaSource (Exhibit N), was dated Monday, August 27, 2007 -- the first business day after the period expired.

45. Thus, Legacy Benefits secretly dated its signature on the Purchase Agreement as of July 25, 2007, but concealed the signed document from ViaSource. By August 9th, Legacy Benefits knew that ViaSource considered the proposed transaction to have failed. Legacy Benefits continued to conceal the "signed" version of the Agreement, and dispatched a demand letter on the first business day after the thirty-day revocation period expired.

Legacy Benefits Utters a Fraud Regarding Escrow of the Purchase Price

46. The proposed Purchase Agreement required that Legacy Benefits place the full purchase price in escrow with Wells Fargo Bank, pursuant to a written Escrow Agreement.

47. Legacy Benefits never provided a signed Escrow Agreement to ViaSource.

48. In its New York Complaint, Legacy Benefits asserted that "the purchase price of $3,951,662 was deposited into escrow with Wells Fargo Northwest.” A copy of the New York Complaint was filed by Legacy Benefits as an Exhibit in this action as well.

49. On information and belief, Legacy Benefits’ assertion is false and fraudulent. The sources of my information and belief are as follows:

A. Legacy Benefits never provided a signed copy of the Escrow Agreement to ViaSource. This is vital, because the escrow agent would have fiduciary duties to both parties.

B. Legacy Benefits never provided any form of confirmation that it had deposited the funds.

C. On October 9, 2007, I telephoned the trust department of Wells Fargo, speaking with Mr. Brant Oliver. He stated, on behalf of Wells Fargo, that (1) Wells Fargo was never presented with the Weller Policy; (2) no funds are or were ever escrowed by Wells Fargo for the proposed transaction; (3) he had no record that anyone at Wells Fargo has ever signed any documents concerning the proposed sale of the Weller Policy.

Legacy Benefits Never Mentions Greenwich

50. Never, in any document relating to the proposed transaction or filed with the courts of New Jersey or New York, or anywhere else, did Legacy Benefits so much as mention Greenwich. On the contrary, Legacy Benefits averred of record that it was the sole party in interest and that there were no other parties involved in the dispute.

Legacy Benefits Withdraws Its Claims

51. After ViaSource filed its New Jersey action and Legacy Benefits filed its tardy New York action, Legacy Benefits abandoned all claims concerning the Policy and the alleged transaction. The documents of record extinguishing those claims are attached to the Certification of Michael D.. Schottland, Esq., which is being filed herewith. I would add and confirm that at no time did anyone ever so much as mention that either Greenwich or any other parties were or might be involved.

52. In reliance upon Legacy Benefits' repeated representations that it was the only party in interest and that Legacy Benefits was abandoning its claims, and in further reliance on Legacy Benefits' dismissal of its New York action, I authorized counsel for ViaSource to dismiss the New Jersey action against Legacy Benefits. If Legacy Benefits, Greenwich or anyone else had indicated that a third party was involved or could make a claim, I would not have authorized the withdrawal of ViaSource's New Jersey action.

53. In addition to the dismissals of record, ViaSource and Legacy Benefits entered into a confidential settlement agreement. (If this action continues, ViaSource is asking this Court to allow disclosure of the settlement agreement.) No payment was made to Legacy Benefits in connection therewith, and the Court should not assume otherwise.

I certify that each of the foregoing statements made by me are true. I am aware that if any of the statements made by me are willfully false, I am subject to punishment.

AND FOR ALTERNATIVE RELIEF

I, Michael D. Schottland, of full age, hereby certify and say:

1. I am an attorney at law of New Jersey, admitted pro haec vice in this Court on behalf of ViaSource Funding Group, LLC ("ViaSource") for this action, and am Of Counsel to the firm of Lomurro, Davison, Eastman & Muñoz, P.A.. My firm also represented ViaSource in a prior action in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division, Monmouth County, styled ViaSource Funding Group LLC v. Legacy Benefits, Docket No. MON-L-4381-07 (the "New Jersey action"). I was principally responsible for the conduct of the New Jersey action. I am also personally familiar with the facts and circumstances surrounding an action styled Legacy Benefits Corporation v. ViaSource Funding Group LLC, Index No. 603172/07 (the "New York action"). I make this Certification in support of the Motion on behalf of ViaSource to dismiss the Complaint of plaintiffs, Greenwich Life Settlements, Inc. and Greenwich Settlements Master Trust ("Greenwich") and for alternative relief.

2. Throughout the New Jersey action and the New York action, Legacy Benefits and its attorneys stated repeatedly that Legacy Benefits was the sole party in interest with respect to the matters at issue therein. At no time did Legacy Benefits, or its attorneys, or anyone else, ever suggest that any third party was in any way involved. At no time did Legacy Benefits, or its attorneys, or anyone else, ever mention an "assignment" or a "third party beneficiary" or the name Greenwich.

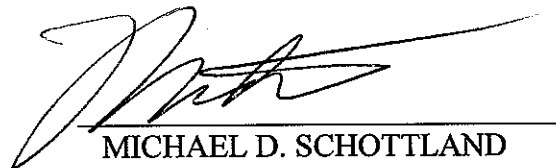

3. By Stipulation of Discontinuance filed December 3, 2007, Legacy Benefits withdrew and dismissed, with prejudice, its claims concerning the Policy in question. A copy of this Stipulation of Discontinuance, provided by counsel for Legacy Benefits, is attached as Exhibit A.

4. By Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice filed January 29, 2008, ViaSource dismissed the New Jersey action, in light of Legacy Benefits' withdrawal of its claims concerning the Policy. A copy of the Stipulation is attached as Exhibit B.

5. ViaSource and Legacy Benefits also entered into a confidential settlement agreement, the terms of which cannot be revealed without further judicial action or the consent of Legacy Benefits.

6. On July 21, 2008, a Complaint on behalf of ViaSource was filed in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division, Monmouth County, against Legacy Benefits. A copy is attached as Exhibit C.

I certify that each of the foregoing statements made by me are true. I am aware that if any of the statements made by me are willfully false, I am subject to punishment.

Plaintiff, ViaSource Funding Group, L.L.C., having a principal office at 457-R Sycamore Avenue in the Borough of Shrewsbury, Monmouth County, New Jersey, by way of complaint against the defendant, Legacy Benefits Corporation, says:

FIRST COUNT

1. Plaintiff is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of New Jersey which is engaged in the viatical funding business. As such, the company purchases, holds, and sells ownership interests in various life insurance policies that have been issued in the name of an owner who for a sum certain transfers the right to receive the benefits under the policy upon the owner's death.

2. Defendant is a New York limited liability company and is engaged in the same business as the plaintiff.

3. On or about June 11, 2007, the plaintiff executed an agreement/assignment whereby it attempted to assign and sell to the defendant the rights to the life insurance proceeds under a certain policy issued by TransAmerica Occidental Life Insurance Company bearing Policy No. 92551064 insuring the life of one, M.W. The defendant never completed execution of the necessary documents, nor did it provide to the plaintiff signed documents indicating that defendant in fact agreed to the terms of the agreement, even though the documents were on forms provided to the plaintiff by the defendant.

4. Under the terms of the proposed agreement, the defendant needed to fund the assignment price, i.e., $3,951,662.00, with an escrow agent within three (3) days after its execution of the contract. In fact, to the knowledge of the plaintiff, the defendant never funded the project, let alone timely execute and return the documents, and attempted to treat the matter as an option.

5. After a reasonable period of time, plaintiff realized that the defendant was not adhering to the terms of the agreement which plaintiff had signed and executed on June 11, 2007, and plaintiff notified the defendant that plaintiff considered the matter as terminated.

6. Defendant, both individually and through counsel, has claimed that the agreement was in force and effect and threatened legal action, which threat was later implemented by the defendant.

7. By this count the plaintiff seeks a declaratory judgment that the agreement was never effective and, if it came into existence, was immediately breached by the defendant through its failure to fund the project within three (3) days.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks a declaratory judgment that it has no obligations under the contract it executed on June 11, 2007 to the defendant.

SECOND COUNT

1. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in the First Count and incorporates same herein by reference.

2. While not conceding that any contract ever came into existence, it is contended that by virtue of the relational interests in sharing in the same viatical funding business, the defendant owed the plaintiff a duty of good faith and fair dealing in the manner in which it acted in connection with this particular attempted assignment and purchase.

3. The defendant, through its actions subsequent to June 11, 2007, followed a pattern and practice which breached the duty of good faith and fair dealing which, under the unusual circumstances present here, gives rise to a claim for damages in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks the entry of judgment against the defendant for compensatory damages, punitive damages, interest, attorneys fees, costs of suit, and such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

THIRD COUNT

1. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in the First and Second Counts and incorporates same herein by reference.

2. The defendant, both directly and through counsel, wrongfully and falsely claimed that the agreement was in full force and effect as between the defendant and the plaintiff. These claims included threats of legal action, which threats were later implemented.

3. In furtherance of its wrongful activity, the defendant uttered, published, filed with this court, and otherwise used forged, false and fraudulent documents.

4. By an action styled, ViaSource Funding Group, LLC v. Legacy Benefits Corp., Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division, Monmouth County, Docket No. MON-L-4381-07, filed September 13, 2007 (the "ViaSource Action"), the plaintiff sought declaratory and other relief against the defendant.

5. By an action styled, Legacy Benefits Corporation v. ViaSource Funding Group, LLC, Supreme Court of New York, County of New York, Index No. 603172/07, filed on or about September 21, 2007 (the "Legacy Action"), the defendant sought damages and other relief as against the plaintiff.

6. At all times prior to and during the pendency of the ViaSource Action and the Legacy Action, and continuing through the dismissal of those actions, the defendant represented to this Court and to the plaintiff that the defendant was the sole alleged owner, alleged contractee, alleged assignee and party in interest concerning the alleged transaction.

7. The defendant knew and intended that the plaintiff would rely upon the truth of the defendant's representations.

8. The plaintiff did, in fact, reasonably rely upon the defendant's representations, by entering into a settlement with the defendant, by dismissing the ViaSource Action, and otherwise.

9. On or about January 25, 2008, the plaintiff and the defendant reached a settlement between them. The terms of the settlement are confidential. By this Complaint, the plaintiffs seeks leave to provide the settlement agreement to this Court and interested parties, in addition to other relief.

10. By Stipulation of Discontinuance dated December 3, 2007, the defendant discontinued the Legacy Action in its entirety and with prejudice, thereby extinguishing any and all claims to the life insurance policy in question under any alleged transaction involving the plaintiff and the defendant.

11. By Stipulation of Dismissal filed January 29, 2008, and in response to and reliance upon the efficacy of the abandonment by the defendant of any and all claims to the policy, the plaintiff dismissed the ViaSource Action.

12. At no time either during the proposed transaction between them, and through and including the settlement and mutual dismissals, did the defendant or any other persons or parties ever indicate that any third party was involved in or had any right, title or interest in or to the policy or the alleged agreement first executed on June 11, 2007 by plaintiff. On the contrary, the defendant represented and acted at all times as if it were the sole party in interest, and that the dismissal of the defendant's claims would leave the plaintiff as the sole and unquestioned owner of the policy.

13. On or about February 29, 2008, an action styled, Greenwich Life Settlements, Inc. and Greenwich Settlements Master Trust v. ViaSource Funding Group, LLC, was commenced in the Supreme Court of New York, New York County, Index No. 600611/2008. This action was later removed to the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, under Civil Action No. 08 Civ. 3062 (PKL) (the "Greenwich Action").

14. The allegations of the Greenwich Action claim, in substance, that the plaintiffs therein are the owners and assignees of the subject policy. The allegations of the Greenwich Action further claim, in substance, that the plaintiffs therein have existing rights as against ViaSource Funding Group LLC (the plaintiff herein).

15. The defendant, Legacy Benefits Corporation, wilfully and maliciously concealed and failed to disclose the alleged involvement and alleged rights of Greenwich Life Settlements, Inc. and Greenwich Settlements Master Trust in the alleged transaction, thereby fraudulently inducing plaintiff ViaSource Funding Group, LLC to enter into the settlement agreement, dismiss the ViaSource Action, and consent to the dismissal of the Legacy Action.

17. The plaintiff reasonably relied upon the representations and silence of the defendant, which representations and silence were material misrepresentations.

18. As a direct and proximate result of the wrongful, malicious and fraudulent actions of defendant Legacy Benefits Corporation, plaintiff ViaSource Funding Group, LLC has sustained and may or will in future sustain damages, including attorneys fees, costs, damage to its reputation and credit standing, and otherwise.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks the entry of judgment against the defendant, for:

(a) An Order directing and permitting the settlement agreement to be revealed and filed this Court, and removing any and all confidentiality provisions thereof;

(b) An Order enforcing the settlement, including without limitation a declaration that neither the defendant nor any party claiming through the defendant have or had any right or interest in or to the policy, and;

(c) for compensatory damages, punitive damages, interest, attorneys fees, costs of suit, and such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

FOURTH COUNT

1. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in the First, Second and Third Counts and incorporates same herein by reference.

2. The defendant has wrongfully, intentionally and maliciously disparaged the good name and reputation of the plaintiff, to the damage of the plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks the entry of judgment against the defendant for compensatory damages, punitive damages, interest, attorneys fees, costs of suit, and such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

FIFTH COUNT

1. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in the First, Second, Third and Fourth Counts and incorporates same herein by reference.

2. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence of the defendant, the plaintiff has sustained, and may or will in future sustain, damages.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks the entry of judgment against the defendant for compensatory damages, interest, attorneys fees, costs of suit, and such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff hereby demands a trial by a jury as to all issues so triable.

DESIGNATION OF TRIAL COUNSEL

MICHAEL D. SCHOTTLAND, ESQ. is hereby designated as trial counsel for the plaintiff, pursuant to R. 4:25-4 and R. 4:5-1(c).

NOTICE OF OTHER ACTIONS

Pursuant to R. 4:5-1, the undersigned certifies that:

The matters in controversy between the parties herein are not the subject of any other action pending in any court or of a pending arbitration proceeding, and that no such other action or proceeding is presently contemplated on behalf of the plaintiff, except as follows. There were prior actions (the ViaSource Action and the Legacy Action) as more fully set forth in the body of the Complaint, but those actions have been dismissed. The Greenwich Action, as more fully set forth in the body of the Complaint, is pending, but the defendant herein is not a party to that action.

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

The following information and disclosure is being provided in order to assist you in making a decision with regard to the sale of your life insurance policy.

1. There exist possible alternatives to a viatical settlement contract including any accelerated death benefits or policy loans offered under your life insurance policy.
2. Some or all of the proceeds of the viatical settlement contract may be taxable under federal income tax and state franchise and income taxes. Guidance and assistance on these issues may be sought from a professional tax advisor.
3. Proceeds of the viatical settlement contract may be subject to the claims of creditors.
4. Receipt of the proceeds of a viatical settlement contract may adversely affect the policy owner's eligibility for Medicaid or other government benefits or entitlements. Advice may be obtained from the appropriate government agencies.
5. The policy owner has the right to rescind a viatical settlement contract before the earlier of 30 calendar days after the date upon which the viatical settlement contract is executed by all parties or for 15 calendar days after the receipt of the viatical settlement proceeds by the policy owner. Rescission, if exercised by policy owner, is effective only if both notice of rescission is given and repayment of all proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest to Legacy Benefits Corporation is made within the rescission period. If the Insured dies during the rescission period, the viatical settlement contract will be deemed to have been rescinded, subject to repayment of all viatical settlement proceeds and any premiums, loans and loan interest being made to Legacy Benefits Corporation.
6. The settlement funds will be sent to the policy owner within three business days after Legacy Benefits Corporation has received the insurer or group administrator's acknowledgment that ownership of the purchased policy has been transferred and the beneficiary has been designated pursuant to the viatical settlement contract.
7. Entering into a viatical settlement contract may cause other rights or benefits, including conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the - policy, to be forfeited by the policy owner. Assistance may be sought from an independent financial adviser.

8. All medical, financial, or personal information solicited or obtained by a viatical settlement provider or a life insurance producer about an insured, including the insured's identity or the identity of family members, a spouse, or a significant other, may be disclosed as necessary to effect the viatical settlement between the seller and the viatical settlement provider. If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure. The information may be provided to someone who buys the policy or provides funds for the purchase. You may be asked to renew your permission to share information every two years.
 9. The insured may be contacted by either Legacy Benefits Corporation or its authorized representative for the purpose for determining the insured's health status. This contact is limited to once every three months if the insured has a life expectancy of more than one year and no more than once each month if the insured has a life expectancy of one year or less.
 10. In addition to this Disclosure Statement, you will receive a Legacy Benefits Corporation brochure describing the process of viatical settlements.
 11. Legacy Benefits Corporation has no affiliation with the insurance company that issued your policy or certificate.
 12. The independent third-party escrow agent who will handle matters related to your policy is Wells Fargo Northwest, National Association with an address and phone number of 299 South Main Street, 12th Floor, Salt Lake City, UT 84111. You may inspect or receive copies of the relevant escrow or trust agreements or documents upon request.
 13. If the policy that you present to Legacy Benefits Corporation for settlement has been issued as a joint policy or involves family riders or any coverage of a life other than the insured under the policy to be acquired pursuant to a viatical settlement contract, you may lose the coverage on the other lives under the policy. Therefore, you should consult with your insurance producer or the insurance company regarding advice on the proposed viatical settlement transaction.
 14. The dollar amount of the current death benefit that would be payable to Legacy Benefits Corporation under your policy is $ 5,223,371.00.
 15. The life settlement broker solely represents your interests as the policy owner, and does not represent the interests of the insurance company or Legacy Benefits Corporation in any transaction involving the sale of your policy. Specifically, the life settlement broker has a fiduciary duty to you as the policy owner to fully represent your interests in the sale of your policy. Legacy Benefits Corporation does not represent you in this transaction and is not affiliated in any way with the life settlement broker that acts as your agent in negotiating the sale of your policy.

16. Legacy Benefits Corporation will pay the life settlement broker a fee as compensation for the sale of your policy to us. Regardless of the fact that the life settlement broker receives a commission payment from Legacy Benefits Corporation, the life settlement broker acts solely as your representative in the sale of your policy and is not an agent of Legacy Benefits Corporation.

ESCROW AGREEMENT

This Escrow Agreement ("ESCROW AGREEMENT") is made and entered into by and between ViaSource Funding Group, LLC, with an office located at 106 Allen Road, Bernards Township, New Jersey 07920 ("SELLER"), Legacy Benefits Corporation, with an office at 350 Fifth Avenue, Suite 4320, New York, New York 10118 ("PURCHASER"), General Electric Capital Corporation, with an office at 201 Merritt 7, Norwalk, Connecticut 06851 ("LENDER") and Wells Fargo Bank Northwest, N.A., with an office at 299 South Main Street, 12th Floor, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111 ("ESCROW AGENT");

WHEREAS, SELLER and PURCHASER have entered into a purchase agreement ("PURCHASE AGREEMENT") related to the sale and/or assignment to PURCHASER of an insurance policy number 92551064 ("POLICY") issued by Transamerica Occidental Life ("INSURANCE COMPANY") insuring the life of Melanie A. Weller ("INSURED") and delivery of documents necessary to transfer ownership of the POLICY to PURCHASER;

WHEREAS, PURCHASER has agreed to pay to SELLER the amount of $3,951,662.00 to purchase the POLICY ("PURCHASE PRICE");

WHEREAS, LENDER has an outstanding lien against the POLICY in the amount of $3,951,662.00 ("REPAYMENT AMOUNT") and SELLER is the owner and beneficiary of the POLICY;

WHEREAS, the LIEN shall continue in effect until LENDER has notified INSURANCE COMPANY in writing that the LIEN is released;

WHEREAS, PURCHASER, LENDER, SELLER and ESCROW AGENT have agreed to enter into the ESCROW AGREEMENT in order to facilitate the consummation of the transactions contemplated in the PURCHASE AGREEMENT and to satisfy the LIEN; and the ESCROW AGENT is willing to do so on the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual premises and conditions contained herein, SELLER, PURCHASER, LENDER, and ESCROW AGENT do hereby agree as follows:

1. Within three (3) business days of the execution hereof by all parties and receipt by PURCHASER of all documents sent by PURCHASER to the SELLER, properly signed and notarized, which are necessary to transfer ownership or assignment of the POLICY to PURCHASER and name it as its beneficiary ("PURCHASE DOCUMENTS"), PURCHASER shall deposit into ESCROW AGENT's special escrow account ("ESCROW ACCOUNT") the PURCHASE PRICE.
2. Upon deposit of the PURCHASE PRICE into the ESCROW ACCOUNT, ESCROW AGENT shall notify LENDER in writing of such deposit ("DEPOSIT NOTICE").
3. Upon receipt of the DEPOSIT NOTICE by LENDER from ESCROW AGENT, LENDER shall deliver to ESCROW AGENT: (A) a written notice addressed to the INSURANCE COMPANY stating that LENDER'S interest in the POLICY is terminated and any other documentation required to terminate any interests held by LENDER in the POLICY including a duly executed collateral release on a form approved by the INSURANCE COMPANY ("COLLATERAL RELEASE"); and (B) written instructions to ESCROW AGENT to submit the COLLATERAL RELEASE to INSURANCE COMPANY;

4. Upon receipt by ESCROW AGENT of the documents listed in Section 3 herein, ESCROW AGENT shall submit to INSURANCE COMPANY: (A) the COLLATERAL RELEASE; and (B) the Change of Ownership and Change of Beneficiary Forms transferring ownership and beneficiary rights in the POLICY to PURCHASER ("CHANGE FORMS") (COLLATERAL RELEASE and CHANGE FORMS shall be collectively referred to herein as the "TRANSFER DOCUMENTS").
5. ESCROW AGENT shall disburse the REPAYMENT AMOUNT to LENDER within three (3) business days of its receipt of written notification from INSURANCE COMPANY or PURCHASER that INSURANCE COMPANY has: (A) accepted and recorded the CHANGE FORMS successfully transferring ownership or assignment of the POLICY to PURCHASER and successfully naming PURCHASER as its beneficiary; (B) acknowledged and recorded the release of the LIEN; and (C) confirmed that there are no other outstanding liens or encumbrances on the POLICY.
6. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that at the time of the receipt of written notification by ESCROW AGENT that INSURANCE COMPANY has accepted and recorded the CHANGE FORMS successfully transferring ownership or assignment of the POLICY to PURCHASER and successfully naming PURCHASER as beneficiary and ESCROW AGENT receives from PURCHASER written notice of the following: (i) other loans or cash advances have been made against the cash value of the POLICY or other encumbrance has been made against the POLICY, which did not exist when the PURCHASE AGREEMENT was executed by SELLER; (ii) the Policy is in grace period pursuant to the terms and conditions of the POLICY; (iii) SELLER has withdrawn cash from the POLICY following the date on which SELLER executed the PURCHASE AGREEMENT; or (iv) the POLICY is not in force, then ESCROW AGENT shall not disburse the REPAYMENT AMOUNT to LENDER until such time as the issues set forth in this paragraph 6 are resolved to PURCHASER's satisfaction. If any of the aforementioned events cannot be remedied to PURCHASER's satisfaction within a reasonable time, SELLER shall execute any and all documents required to collaterally assign the POLICY back to LENDER and provide such documentation to LENDER. Upon LENDER's approval of those documents, ESCROW AGENT shall return the PURCHASE PRICE to PURCHASER. PURCHASER and SELLER, if necessary, shall execute any documents necessary to reinstate SELLER as the owner and beneficiary of the POLICY, which ESCROW AGENT shall immediately submit to the INSURANCE COMPANY.

If PURCHASER notifies ESCROW AGENT that INSURANCE COMPANY has not accepted the TRANSFER DOCUMENTS and/or is unable to transfer ownership of the POLICY to PURCHASER, and/or has not named PURCHASER as the POLICY'S assignee, and/or has not named PURCHASER as the POLICY'S beneficiary, for whatever reason, and PURCHASER returns the TRANSFER DOCUMENTS to ESCROW AGENT, ESCROW AGENT shall then return: (1) to SELLER, the CHANGE FORMS transferring ownership and beneficiary rights in the POLICY to PURCHASER; (2) to LENDER, the COLLATERAL RELEASE and if such documents are not returned by INSURANCE COMPANY, SELLER shall execute any and all documents required to collaterally assign the POLICY back to LENDER and provide such documents to LENDER; and (3) to PURCHASER, the PURCHASE PRICE. PURCHASER shall also execute any documents necessary to reinstate SELLER as the owner and beneficiary of the POLICY, and shall immediately file them with the INSURANCE COMPANY.

If, on September 30, 2007, the INSURANCE COMPANY has not yet transferred the POLICY'S ownership to PURCHASER, and/or has not named PURCHASER as the POLICY'S assignee, and/or has not named PURCHASER as the POLICY'S beneficiary, PURCHASER shall return the PURCHASE DOCUMENTS to ESCROW AGENT and upon receipt thereof, ESCROW AGENT shall then return: (1) to SELLER, the CHANGE FORMS transferring ownership and beneficiary rights in the POLICY to PURCHASER; (2) to Lender, the COLLATERAL RELEASE and if such documents are not returned by INSURANCE COMPANY, SELLER shall execute any and all documents required to collaterally assign the POLICY back to LENDER and provide such documentation to LENDER; and (3) to PURCHASER, the PURCHASE PRICE. PURCHASER also shall execute any documents necessary to reinstate SELLER as the owner and beneficiary of the policy and shall immediately file them with INSURANCE COMPANY.

7. ESCROW AGENT may act in reliance upon any writing, instrument, certificate, opinion, notice, letter, document or signature that ESCROW AGENT, in good faith, believes to be genuine, and may assume any person purporting to give any notice, writing, advice, or instructions in connection with any provision herein has been duly authorized to do so.
8. ESCROW AGENT shall have no duties or obligations other than those specifically set forth herein or as may subsequently be agreed in writing by the parties hereto and shall use the same degree of care and skill as is reasonably expected of a financial institution acting in comparable capacity as an escrow agent.
9. Included in this sale, assignment, transfer, and delivery shall be all monies due and to become due or payable under the POLICY and all dividends, options, benefits, and advantages derived from the POLICY, including, but not limited to, the right to surrender the POLICY at any time and to receive the surrender value thereof; the right upon the death of the insured, to collect the death benefit payable under the POLICY; and all other rights and benefits afforded to the owner, insured and/or beneficiary(ies) of and under the POLICY.

SELLING POLICY OWNER warrants the validity and sufficiency of this absolute and unconditional sale and assignment to LBC, its successors and/or assigns, of all of SELLING POLICY OWNER'S rights, title, to and/or interest in, and to the POLICY. SELLING POLICY OWNER further represents and warrants to LBC that: (a) this PURCHASE AGREEMENT is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the SELLING POLICY OWNER enforceable in accordance with its respective terms, (b) SELLING POLICY OWNER is the sole and undisputed owner of the POLICY, (c) the face amount of, and net death benefit payable under, the POLICY is correctly set forth herein, (d) the benefits under the POLICY are incontestable, as set forth in any contestability provisions of the POLICY and to the best of SELLING POLICY OWNER's knowledge there are no facts or circumstances in existence as of the date hereof which could serve as a defense to payment in full of the death benefits payable by the INSURANCE COMPANY to the named beneficiaries upon the death of the INSURED, (e) there are no liens on the POLICY, (f) (1) SELLING POLICY OWNER has not filed for bankruptcy and the POLICY has not been subject to any bankruptcy proceedings since both the date of the POLICY was issued and the effective date of any additions or changes in coverage provided by the POLICY or (2) if SELLING POLICY OWNER has filed for bankruptcy, the POLICY was not subject to the claims of creditors and SELLING POLICY OWNER has provided LBC with a true, complete and correct copy of the bankruptcy discharge document and any bankruptcy documents related to the POLICY, (g) the POLICY is not the subject of any law, divorce decree or other legal impediment which requires that the POLICY be maintained for the benefit of any person or entity or which prohibits or restricts SELLING POLICY OWNER from executing this PURCHASE AGREEMENT and/or from transferring the full ownership of the POLICY and changing the beneficiary designation thereof, (h) there are no restrictions on the transfer of the POLICY, (i) there are no unpaid premiums on the POLICY, (j) the POLICY is in full force and effect and has not lapsed, and, the original owner of the POLICY at issuance had an insurable interest in the INSURED at the time the POLICY was originally issued, and (k) all of the information contained in each of the documents delivered by or on behalf of SELLING POLICY OWNER to LBC in connection with this PURCHASE AGREEMENT is true, complete and correct and none of such information or representation and warranty omits to state a material fact necessary to make such information, representation and/or warranty not misleading in light of the circumstances under which such statement(s) were made.

In the event that a premium payment on the POLICY becomes due following the date on which settlement funds are deposited to ESCROW AGENT's escrow account but prior to the date on which INSURANCE COMPANY has recorded that the POLICY's ownership has been transferred to LBC or the ESCROW AGENT, SELLING POLICY OWNER shall make the minimum required premium payment to INSURANCE COMPANY to maintain the POLICY in force.

SELLING POLICY OWNER hereby acknowledges and understands that this AGREEMENT is based upon SELLING POLICY OWNER's application to LBC and that the statements and answers therein contained, continue to be true to the best of the SELLING POLICY OWNER's knowledge and belief, and shall continue to be true of the time of closing. Any change in SELLING POLICY OWNER's application shall be made in writing and signed by SELLING POLICY OWNER and LBC.

SELLING POLICY OWNER hereby acknowledges and agrees that LBC shall be permitted to disclose the identity and/or medical and financial information of SELLING POLICY OWNER to a third person if such disclosure is necessary to effect this PURCHASE AGREEMENT or necessary to permit LBC's financing entity, related trust or special purpose entity to finance the purchase of the POLICY by LBC.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, SELLING POLICY OWNER hereby acknowledges and agrees that LBC, at its own will and discretion, may transfer, sell, assign, or otherwise dispose of the POLICY and all its related legal, insurance, and medical documents to another purchaser(s) or financial institution at any time. SELLING POLICY OWNER and INSURED hereby acknowledge and agree that following the transfer of the POLICY by LBC, a subsequent owner of the POLICY shall have the right to directly request and obtain updated medical records regarding the INSURED from INSURED's medical practitioners for purpose of updating the INSURED's mortality evaluation or selling the POLICY to potential third parties. SELLING POLICY OWNER further acknowledges and agrees that any consents and authorizations relating to the release of personal data and medical information specifically contemplate the potential resale of the POLICY and the redisclosure of such information to potential purchasers of the POLICY.

There are no fees to be paid by SELLING POLICY OWNER to LBC in order to sell the POLICY.

It is agreed that an escrow agreement ("ESCROW AGREEMENT") shall be signed by LBC, SELLING POLICY OWNER, Wells Fargo Northwest, National Association, as escrow agent ("ESCROW AGENT"). The ESCROW AGREEMENT provides for the transfer of settlement proceeds due to SELLING POLICY OWNER within three (3) business days of receipt by LBC of written confirmation from INSURANCE COMPANY that the POLICY's ownership and/or assignment has been transferred to LBC.

It is agreed that LBC, as per the ESCROW AGREEMENT, shall arrange for the settlement funds to be deposited to ESCROW AGENT's escrow account within three (3) business days of receipt by LBC or ESCROW AGENT of SELLING POLICY OWNER'S signed documents necessary to effect the transfer of the POLICY to LBC, its assigns or to the ESCROW AGENT.

SELLING POLICY OWNER has the right to rescind this PURCHASE AGREEMENT

before the earlier of thirty calendar days after the date when this PURCHASE AGREEMENT is executed by all parties or fifteen calendar days after the receipt of the settlement proceeds by the SELLING POLICY OWNER, provided that, within the rescission period SELLING POLICY OWNER advises LBC of SELLING POLICY OWNER'S desire to rescind and refunds LBC the settlement proceeds and any premiums, loans and loan interest. LBC's rights and interest in the POLICY will terminate upon LBC's timely receipt of such payment.

Should INSURED die prior to the end of the rescission period, it shall be deemed that SELLING POLICY OWNER has rescinded this PURCHASE AGREEMENT if repayment of all settlement proceeds and, if applicable, any premiums, loans and loan interest to LBC is made within forty-five days after the end of the rescission period.

SELLING POLICY OWNER hereby acknowledges that SELLING POLICY OWNER has been given the opportunity to review this PURCHASE AGREEMENT with independent counsel of SELLING POLICY OWNER'S choosing and is entering into this PURCHASE AGREEMENT freely and voluntarily, without constraint and without anyone exerting any influence of any kind over SELLING POLICY OWNER.

SELLING POLICY OWNER hereby acknowledges that SELLING POLICY OWNER consents to this PURCHASE AGREEMENT, has a full and complete understanding of this PURCHASE AGREEMENT and the benefits of the POLICY, has released INSURED's medical records to LBC, and has consulted with any such persons as SELLING POLICY OWNER shall have deemed appropriate prior to entering into this PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

This PURCHASE AGREEMENT, together with SELLING POLICY OWNER'S APPLICATION and ESCROW AGREEMENT, constitute the entire contract between LBC and OWNER.

This PURCHASE AGREEMENT shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York excluding any conflict-of-laws rule or principle that might refer the governance or the construction of this agreement to the law of another jurisdiction, and any litigation related to this PURCHASE AGREEMENT shall be brought in the State of New York.

Here are the outstanding issues on the Weller case:

- 1) We do not believe that authority to view medical records can be passed from party to another under TX statutes. Having said that, I have asked our funder to issue a waiver for this criterion. In the event they do, I would still want the transfer from ViaSource to LBC to be amended to add our funder (I will provide the name later) and its affiliates.
- 2) No documents establishing initial insurable interest were provided. We will need a statement from

9/12/2007

G

Frozen Foods, in the same format as the authorization to sell the policy, establishing what percentage ownership Melanie Weller held.

- 3) ViaSource's formation documents (i.e. whatever documents were filed with the Secretary of State)
- 4) ViaSource corporate resolution authorizing the re-sale of the policy
- 5) ViaSource's operating/shareholder agreement
- 6) Incumbency certificate (or equivalent document) showing authorized signatories on behalf of GE Capital.

Either criteria 4 or 5 should establish who can sign on behalf of ViaSource.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

I have been reviewing the closing documents that were sent. There are a number of outstanding issues that we will need to resolve. In the meantime, there are two topics that we have needed to discuss with our funder (an insurable interest question and the medical release provided). I expect that we will have some feedback on those issues on Monday. Once I have a clear understanding of how we will proceed, I will e-mail you with the details.

I hope you're feeling better than earlier in the week. At some point this morning please send me the items we're missing. We really would like to bring this sale to closure and move on to some other cases. We're putting together 2-3 others files we've owned for several years and would consider selling, but this Weller sale needs to get wrapped up.

Marc:

I have discussed this issue internally and I believe that this is the minimum we can accept to clean up the file and get the case closed:

- 1) A copy of all original closing documents
- 2) Formation Document or Certificate of Good Standing for your state of formation
- 3) A copy of the operating agreement or corporate resolutions authorizing the resale of the policy and who may sign on behalf of the LLC
- 4) Evidence of initial insurable interest. We cannot waive this even if it will be difficult to come by. What exactly are you looking for here so I only have to go to them once? She owned the company and the company purchased a policy on her life that was not premium financed. Tell me what you need specifically and I'll do what I can.
- 5) I am still working with our funder to waive a new HIPPA release but it may be necessary to have the insured sign one, as we were led to believe she would from the outset of this transaction. I'm not sure how you got the idea that she would sign another release because we've never committed to that – her people were hard enough to deal with the first go round. If you can't go without it, I'll try.

Sonia: Please prepare as many of the items, 1-3 as you can and review them w/ Chris so we can pass this along to Josh today. #3 will be a corporate resolution that Chris should be able to find.

- 2) No documents establishing initial insurable interest were provided. This will be exceptionally difficult, if not impossible, to obtain. The attorney's for Frozen

9/12/2007

Foods were difficult to work with. That said, I'll see what we have that may help us here.

- 3) ViaSource's formation documents (i.e. whatever documents were filed with the Secretary of State) Why, and what are you trying to establish?
- 4) ViaSource corporate resolution authorizing the re-sale of the policy No problem
- 5) ViaSource's operating/shareholder agreement No
- 6) Incumbency certificate (or equivalent document) showing authorized signatories on behalf of GE Capital.

Either criteria 4 or 5 should establish who can sign on behalf of ViaSource.

9/12/2007

I have been reviewing the closing documents that were sent. There are a number of outstanding issues that we will need to resolve. In the meantime, there are two topics that we have needed to discuss with our funder (an insurable interest question and the medical release provided). I expect that we will have some feedback on those issues on Monday. Once I have a clear understanding of how we will proceed, I will e-mail you with the details.

Joshua,

I realize the issue with the Hipaa. That is not what I was referring to when I asked the issue. I was questioning whether or not it can be "worked out" & how long it will take to get this resolved.

You have said in previous emails that you expected an answer sooner but the expected time passes & still we have no answer. I expect that there are issues that are being worked out to try & get this passed. This is the issue I am referring to.

Marc is getting impatient with the delay & needs an answer soon. This is starting to have an impact on other files that we are working on. Is there anything needed by us that may help this along?

Thanks,

Sonia

Mr. Mark Feaster
ViaSource Funding Group, LLC
106 Allen Road
Bernard Township, NJ 07920

Re: TransAmerica Occidental Life Insurance Company Policy Number 92551064 (the "Policy")
Insured: Melanie Weller

Dear Mr. Feaster:

As you are aware, on June 11, 2007, a Purchase Agreement and Irrevocable Absolute Assignment of Life Insurance Policy by and between ViaSource Funding Group, LLC ("ViaSource") and Legacy Benefits Corporation ("Legacy") (the "Purchase Agreement") was executed by Christopher T. Daly and you on behalf of ViaSource. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, ViaSource entered into a binding contract to sell the Policy to Legacy Benefits Corporation in consideration of $3,951,662 per the terms of the Purchase Agreement.

On August 1, 2007, an Assignment to Transfer Ownership for Life Insurance Policies form and a Beneficiary Designation form (both of which were signed on behalf of ViaSource and by General Electric Capital Corporation, as the Collateral Assignee, and indicated an instruction to change the ownership and beneficiary designation on the Policy to Legacy) were submitted via fax to TransAmerica Occidental Life Insurance Company.

On August 9, 2007, Legacy contacted TransAmerica to ascertain the status of such change forms. We were notified at that time that ViaSource had instructed TransAmerica that any change forms submitted after July 31, 2007 should be disregarded. Legacy was not notified by ViaSource of such instruction to TransAmerica, any change of heart nor of any impending deadline to submit the change of ownership/beneficiary forms to the carrier.

W

Although the Purchase Agreement provides that ViaSource has the right to rescind the Purchase Agreement before (i) the earlier of thirty calendar days after the date when the Purchase Agreement is executed by all parties or (ii) fifteen calendar days after the receipt of the settlement proceeds by ViaSource, such right is conditioned on the fact that within the aforementioned rescission period, ViaSource must have advised Legacy of its desire to rescind.

As of the date hereof, no correspondence has been received from you or any other representative of ViaSource pertaining to this matter. Indeed, in an email sent to you on August 9, 2007 by Meir Eliav, he asked you for your position on this transaction. You did not respond to his email. Although you had ample opportunity to advise Legacy of any decision to rescind, you failed to do so. Indeed, there has been no notice to Legacy made by ViaSource of its desire to rescind the contract. As such, pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, which was signed by ViaSource on June 11, 2007 and by Legacy on July 25, 2007, the rescission period expired on August 25, 2007 and the Purchase Agreement is still in place.

ViaSource's attempt to renege on the Purchase Agreement (by instructing TransAmerica to disregard the change forms that ViaSource expected Legacy to file) is simply ineffectual. The Purchase Agreement that was counter-signed by Legacy on July 25, 2007 created a contract binding on the parties thereto. Your attempt to renege is a clear breach of such contract and is not an effective exercise of your rescission right, which has now expired.

ViaSource signed the definitive transaction documentation for Legacy's purchase of the Policy and did not rescind such agreements in a timely manner. As such, Legacy expects the transaction to proceed according to its terms.

Please be advised that if within five (5) business days of the date of this letter you fail to instruct TransAmerica to proceed to record the change forms filed by Legacy on August 1, 2007 and proceed with the closing of Legacy's purchase of the Policy subject to the terms set forth in the definitive transaction documents, Legacy will seek all legal and equitable remedies available to it. We trust that this will not be necessary.

Very truly yours,

Anat Peirez
General Counsel

Re: Purchase Agreement and Irrevocable Absolute Assignment of Life Insurance Policy between ViaSource Funding Group, LLC and Legacy Benefits Corporation dated June 11, 2007 (the "Agreement")

Dear Mr. Feaster:

This firm represents Legacy Benefits Corporation ("LBC") in connection with the above-referenced Agreement for the sale by ViaSource Funding Group, LLC ("VFG") to LBC of life insurance policy number 92551064 issued by TransAmerica Occidental Life Insurance Company and insuring the life of Melanie Weller (the "Policy"). Our client has provided us with a copy of its letter to you dated August 28, 2007, in reference to the Agreement to which letter LBC has never received any response.

Under the plain, express terms of the Agreement, VFG, unambiguously has agreed to sell to LBC the Policy for a purchase price of $3,951,662 and funds for the payment of which LBC escrowed with Wells Fargo Northwest, the escrow agent, as contemplated by the Agreement. Subsequent to the signing of the Agreement by both LBC and VFG and LBC's escrow of funds for payment of the purchase, LBC learned that VFG, after LBC having submitted the change of ownership and change of beneficiary forms for the Policy to TransAmerica Occidental Life Insurance Company (the "Insurer") to effectuate the change of ownership and beneficiary of the Policy from VFG to LBC, instructed the Insurer to cease processing these change forms. Such action of VFG is clearly an intentional breach by it of the Agreement.

LBC hereby demands that VFG immediately cause the Insurer to effectuate the processing of the change forms and provide to me no later than 5:00 p.m. e.t. on Wednesday, September 12, 2007, the written assurance of VFG that such processing has been reinstituted. If VFG fails to reinstitute such processing or deliver such written assurance to me by such time and date, we will commence proceedings on behalf LBC against VFG to pursue all of LBC's equitable and legal remedies for this blatant and intentional breach by VFG of the Agreement, including without

SUPERIOR COURT OF NEW JERSEY

Civil Action

COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT AND JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff, ViaSource Funding Group, L.L.C., having a principal office at 457-R Sycamore Avenue in the Borough of Shrewsbury, Monmouth County, New Jersey, by way of complaint against the defendant, says:

COUNT ONE

1. Plaintiff is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of New Jersey which is engaged in the viatical funding business. As such, the company purchases, holds, and sells ownership interests in various life insurance policies that have been issued in the name of an owner who for a sum certain transfers the right to receive the benefits under the policy upon the owner's death.

2. Defendant is a New York limited liability company and is engaged in the same business as the plaintiff.

P

3. On or about June 11, 2007, the plaintiff executed an agreement/assignment whereby it attempted to assign and sell to the defendant the rights to the life insurance proceeds under a certain policy issued by TransAmerica Occidental Life Insurance Company bearing Policy No. 92551064 insuring the life of one, M.W. The defendant never completed execution of the necessary documents, nor did it provide to the plaintiff signed documents indicating that defendant in fact agreed to the terms of the agreement, even though the documents were on forms provided to the plaintiff by the defendant.

4. Under the terms of the proposed agreement, the defendant needed to fund the assignment price, i.e., $3,951,662.00, with an escrow agent within three (3) days after its execution of the contract. In fact, to the knowledge of the plaintiff, the defendant never funded the project, let alone execute the documents, and attempted to treat the matter as an option.

5. After a certain period of time, plaintiff realized that the defendant was not adhering to the terms of the agreement which plaintiff had signed and executed on June 11, 2007, and plaintiff notified the defendant that it was rescinding the agreement.

6. Defendant, both individually and through counsel, has claimed that the agreement is in force and effect and is threatening legal action.

7. By this count the plaintiff seeks a declaratory judgment that the agreement was never effective and, if it came into existence, was immediately breached by the defendant through its failure to fund the project within three (3) days.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks a declaratory judgment that it has no obligations under the contract it executed on June 11, 2007 to the defendant.

COUNT TWO

1. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in Count One and incorporates same herein by reference.

2. While not conceding that any contract ever came into existence, it is contended that by virtue of the relational interests in sharing in the same viatical funding business, the defendant owed the plaintiff a duty of good faith and fair dealing in the manner in which it acted in connection with this particular attempted assignment and purchase.

3. The defendant, through its actions subsequent to June 11, 2007, followed a pattern and practice which breached the duty of good faith and fair dealing which, under the unusual circumstances present here, gives rise to a claim for damages in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks the entry of judgment against the defendant for damages plus costs of suit.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff hereby demands a trial by a jury as to all issues.

LEGACY BENEFITS CORPORATION

Plaintiff,

VIASOURCE FUNDING GROUP, LLC,

Defendant.

Index No. 6003172/07

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Legacy Benefits Corporation ("Legacy"), by its attorneys, Lord, Bissell & Brook, LLP, alleges as follows on knowledge as to its own actions and otherwise on information and belief:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is an action for damages for breach of contract, punitive damages, and attorneys' fees from Defendant, ViaSource Funding Group, LLC ("ViaSource").

2. Plaintiff brings this action against ViaSource for willful breach of a Purchase Agreement and Irrevocable Absolute Assignment of Life Insurance Policy (the "Purchase Agreement") pursuant to which ViaSource had agreed to sell to Legacy Life Insurance Policy

No. 92551064.

3. Plaintiff Legacy hereby seeks damages arising from the breach of contract, punitive damages, and Legacy's attorneys' fees.

PARTIES

4. Legacy is a corporation organized, existing, and doing business under the laws of the State of New York, with its principal place of business located in New York. Legacy is an innovative specialty-finance firm focused on the life settlement market.

5. ViaSource is a limited liability company organized, existing, and doing business under the laws of the State of New Jersey, with its principal place of business in Bernard Township, New Jersey. Upon information and belief, ViaSource is also a specialty-finance firm focused on the life settlement market.

6. Jurisdiction and venue are appropriate in this Court because, upon information and belief, at all times hereinafter mentioned, ViaSource was and still is a foreign corporation duly authorized to transact business within the State of New York. Additionally, ViaSource has consented to this jurisdiction and venue pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement at issue in this action.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

7. Both ViaSource and Legacy are in the business of, among other things, purchasing and selling life insurance policies.¹

8. On June 11, 2007, ViaSource executed a binding Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which ViaSource agreed to sell Legacy policy number 92551064 (the "Policy"), in consideration of $3,951,662. *See Ex. A.*²

9. On July 27, 2007, Legacy executed the binding Purchase Agreement.

10. Upon information and belief, the Policy was originally issued by TransAmerica Occidental Life Insurance Company (the "Insurer"), insuring the life of M.W. (the "Insured").

¹ The purchase and sale of a life insurance policy in the secondary market involves several steps. Generally after the purchase agreement is entered into between a buyer and a seller and all requested information/documentation is provided to the buyer, the buyer places the purchase funds in escrow. The buyer then sends change of ownership/beneficiary forms to the insurance company that issued the policy. Once the insurance company, pursuant to the change of ownership forms, changes the policy ownership and beneficiary from the seller to the buyer, the buyer instructs the escrow agent to release the purchase funds to the seller.

² True Copies of all exhibits referenced herein are annexed.

11. Upon information and belief, ViaSource purchased the policy from the Insured.

12. At the time the Purchase Agreement was entered into, the Policy had a total face value of $4,312,500, to be paid to the Policy beneficiary upon the death of the Insured.

The Life Settlement Transaction

13. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the purchase price of $3,951,662 was deposited into escrow with Wells Fargo Northwest, the agreed upon escrow agent.

14. As provided for by the Purchase Agreement, ViaSource executed the Assignment to Transfer Ownership for Life Insurance Policies Form and a Beneficiary Designation Form on July 17, 2007 and July 16, 2007, respectively, (the "Change of Ownership Forms"), which instructed the Insurer to institute Legacy as the owner and beneficiary of the Policy.

15. As contemplated by the Purchase Agreement, Legacy then sent the Insurer the Change of Ownership Forms via fax. See Ex. B.

ViaSource Violates the Purchase Agreement

16. On August 9, 2007, Legacy contacted the Insurer to confirm the Change of Ownership Forms were received and processed.

17. The Insurer notified Legacy that ViaSource had instructed the Insurer to disregard any Change of Ownership Forms submitted after July 31, 2007.

18. ViaSource never informed Legacy that the Insurer had been instructed to disregard the Change of Ownership Forms submitted after July 31, 2007.

19. Moreover, ViaSource never provided notice to Legacy pursuant to the Purchase Agreement to rescind either during or following the rescission period. See Ex. A at Pg. 4.

COUNT I

(Breach of Contract)

20. Legacy hereby incorporates the allegations set forth in the paragraphs listed above.

21. ViaSource entered into a valid and binding contract with Legacy, which is reflected in the Purchase Agreement.

22. By the terms of the Purchase Agreement and for adequate consideration, ViaSource agreed to sell the Policy to Legacy.

23. ViaSource breached the Purchase Agreement by willfully instructing the Insurer to obstruct performance of the Purchase Agreement.

24. As a consequence of the foregoing, Legacy has been damaged in the amount of $151,838.

25. Legacy is entitled to receive damages as a result of ViaSource's breach of contract.

COUNT II

(Punitive Damages)

26. Legacy hereby incorporates the allegations set forth in the paragraphs listed above.

27. ViaSource acted maliciously in instructing the Insurer to disregard any Change of Ownership Forms submitted after July 31, 2007, because such instruction was given in willful, wanton, and reckless disregard of Legacy's contractual rights.

28. Legacy is therefore entitled to punitive damages.

WHEREFORE, Legacy respectfully requests that this Court enter an order:

- a. Awarding Legacy damages for breach of contract in an amount no less than $151,838.00;
- b. Awarding Legacy punitive and exemplary damages;
- c. Awarding Legacy its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and disbursements of the action; and
- d. For such other damages and relief as this Court may deem just and appropriate.

SELLING POLICY OWNER further represents and warrants to LBC that: (a) this PURCHASE AGREEMENT is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the SELLING POLICY OWNER enforceable in accordance with its respective terms, (b) SELLING POLICY OWNER is the sole and undisputed owner of the POLICY, (c) the face amount of, and net death benefit payable under, the POLICY is correctly set forth herein, (d) the benefits under the POLICY are incontestable, as set forth in any contestability provisions of the POLICY and to the best of SELLING POLICY OWNER's knowledge there are no facts or circumstances in existence as of the date hereof which could serve as a defense to payment in full of the death benefits payable by the INSURANCE COMPANY to the named beneficiaries upon the death of the INSURED, (e) there are no liens on the POLICY, (f) (1) SELLING POLICY OWNER has not filed for bankruptcy and the POLICY has not been subject to any bankruptcy proceedings since both the date of the POLICY was issued and the effective date of any additions or changes in coverage provided by the POLICY or (2) if SELLING POLICY OWNER has filed for bankruptcy, the POLICY was not subject to the claims of creditors and SELLING POLICY OWNER has provided LBC with a true, complete and correct copy of the bankruptcy discharge document and any bankruptcy documents related to the POLICY, (g) the POLICY is not the subject of any law, divorce decree or other legal impediment which requires that the POLICY be maintained for the benefit of any person or entity or which prohibits or restricts SELLING POLICY OWNER from executing this PURCHASE AGREEMENT and/or from transferring the full ownership of the POLICY and changing the beneficiary designation thereof, (h) there are no restrictions on the transfer of the POLICY, (i) there are no unpaid premiums on the POLICY, (j) the POLICY is in full force and effect and has not lapsed, and, the original owner of the POLICY at issuance had an insurable interest in the INSURED at the time the POLICY was originally issued, and (k) all of the information contained in each of the documents delivered by or on behalf of SELLING POLICY OWNER to LBC in connection with this PURCHASE AGREEMENT is true, complete and correct and none of such information or representation and warranty omits to state a material fact necessary to make such information, representation and/or warranty not misleading in light of the circumstances under which such statement(s) were made.

In the event that a premium payment on the POLICY becomes due following the date on which settlement funds are deposited to ESCROW AGENT's escrow account but prior to the date on which INSURANCE COMPANY has recorded that the POLICY's ownership has been transferred to LBC or the ESCROW AGENT, SELLING POLICY OWNER shall make the minimum required premium payment to INSURANCE COMPANY to maintain the POLICY in force.

SELLING POLICY OWNER hereby acknowledges and understands that this AGREEMENT is based upon SELLING POLICY OWNER's application to LBC and that the statements and answers therein contained, continue to be true to the best of the SELLING POLICY OWNER's knowledge and belief, and shall continue to be true of the time of closing. Any change in SELLING POLICY OWNER's application shall be made in writing and signed by SELLING POLICY OWNER and LBC.

SELLING POLICY OWNER hereby acknowledges and agrees that LBC shall be permitted to disclose the identity and/or medical and financial information of SELLING POLICY OWNER to a third person if such disclosure is necessary to effect this PURCHASE AGREEMENT or necessary to permit LBC's financing entity, related trust or special purpose entity to finance the purchase of the POLICY by LBC.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, SELLING POLICY OWNER hereby acknowledges and agrees that LBC, at its own will and discretion, may transfer, sell, assign, or otherwise dispose of the POLICY and all its related legal, insurance, and medical documents to another purchaser(s) or financial institution at any time. SELLING POLICY OWNER and INSURED hereby acknowledge and agree that following the transfer of the POLICY by LBC, a subsequent owner of the POLICY shall have the right to directly request and obtain updated medical records regarding the INSURED from INSURED's medical practitioners for purpose of updating the INSURED's mortality evaluation or selling the POLICY to potential third parties. SELLING POLICY OWNER further acknowledges and agrees that any consents and authorizations relating to the release of personal data and medical information specifically contemplate the potential resale of the POLICY and the redisclosure of such information to potential purchasers of the POLICY.

There are no fees to be paid by SELLING POLICY OWNER to LBC in order to sell the POLICY.

It is agreed that an escrow agreement ("ESCROW AGREEMENT") shall be signed by LBC, SELLING POLICY OWNER, Wells Fargo Northwest, National Association, as escrow agent ("ESCROW AGENT"). The ESCROW AGREEMENT provides for the transfer of settlement proceeds due to SELLING POLICY OWNER within three (3) business days of receipt by LBC of written confirmation from INSURANCE COMPANY that the POLICY's ownership and/or assignment has been transferred to LBC.

It is agreed that LBC, as per the ESCROW AGREEMENT, shall arrange for the settlement funds to be deposited to ESCROW AGENT's escrow account within three (3) business days of receipt by LBC or ESCROW AGENT of SELLING POLICY OWNER'S signed documents necessary to effect the transfer of the POLICY to LBC, its assigns or to the ESCROW AGENT.

SELLING POLICY OWNER has the right to rescind this PURCHASE AGREEMENT

before the earlier of thirty calendar days after the date when this PURCHASE AGREEMENT is executed by all parties or fifteen calendar days after the receipt of the settlement proceeds by the SELLING POLICY OWNER, provided that, within the rescission period SELLING POLICY OWNER advises LBC of SELLING POLICY OWNER'S desire to rescind and refunds LBC the settlement proceeds and any premiums, loans and loan interest. LBC's rights and interest in the POLICY will terminate upon LBC's timely receipt of such payment.

Should INSURED die prior to the end of the rescission period, it shall be deemed that SELLING POLICY OWNER has rescinded this PURCHASE AGREEMENT if repayment of all settlement proceeds and, if applicable, any premiums, loans and loan interest to LBC is made within forty-five days after the end of the rescission period.

SELLING POLICY OWNER hereby acknowledges that SELLING POLICY OWNER has been given the opportunity to review this PURCHASE AGREEMENT with independent counsel of SELLING POLICY OWNER'S choosing and is entering into this PURCHASE AGREEMENT freely and voluntarily, without constraint and without anyone exerting any influence of any kind over SELLING POLICY OWNER.

SELLING POLICY OWNER hereby acknowledges that SELLING POLICY OWNER consents to this PURCHASE AGREEMENT, has a full and complete understanding of this PURCHASE AGREEMENT and the benefits of the POLICY, has released INSURED's medical records to LBC, and has consulted with any such persons as SELLING POLICY OWNER shall have deemed appropriate prior to entering into this PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

This PURCHASE AGREEMENT, together with SELLING POLICY OWNER'S APPLICATION and ESCROW AGREEMENT, constitute the entire contract between LBC and OWNER.

This PURCHASE AGREEMENT shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York excluding any conflict-of-laws rule or principle that might refer the governance or the construction of this agreement to the law of another jurisdiction, and any litigation related to this PURCHASE AGREEMENT shall be brought in the State of New York.
